

FINDING YOUR DRIVE

2 CORINTHIANS 5:13-6:2

2 Corinthians 5:13, 6:2 (New International Version)

13 If we are out of our mind, it is for the sake of God; if we are in our right mind, it is for you. 14 For Christ's love compels us, because we are convinced that one died for all, and therefore all died. 15 And he died for all, that those who live should no longer live for themselves but for him who died for them and was raised again. 16 So from now on we regard no one from a worldly point of view. Though we once regarded Christ in this way, we do so no longer. 17 Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation; the old has gone, the new has come! 18 All this is from God, who reconciled us to himself through Christ and gave us the ministry of reconciliation: 19 that God was reconciling the world to himself in Christ, not counting men's sins against them. And he has committed to us the message of reconciliation. 20 We are therefore Christ's ambassadors, as though God were making his appeal through us. We implore you on Christ's behalf: Be reconciled to God. 21 God made him who had no sin to be sin for us, so that in him we might become the righteousness of God.

1 As God's fellow workers we urge you not to receive God's grace in vain. 2 For he says, "In the time of my favor I heard you, and in the day of salvation I helped you." I tell you, now is the time of God's favor; now is the day of salvation.

NEW SERIES CONTINUES

Do your friends see Jesus in the way you live your life? Are you obstacle or an instrument used by God? Some of us feel like we just don't have the gift of evangelism and we should be off the hook. But this series we give us a glimpse of what evangelism really looks like. In the Apostle Paul, we see both a passionate devotion to calling and practical insights into how to minister more effectively in our world.
